SUPERINTENDENT'S CORNER

Dear School Community Member:

I hope this Welcome Back issue of the Comet newsletter finds you in the best of health and spirit as we prepare to welcome the 2016-17 school year! As this newsletter goes to print, the halfway point of the summer break has come and gone. We are now looking forward to the start of a brand new school year with brand new opportunities. Below are a few updates that I would like you to make note of as we prepare to begin our school year.

Future Building Project Update

In the previous school year (2015-16), the District entered into discussions regarding a new building project which would address several of the infrastructure issues that were not completed in our last building project including, but not limited to, the swimming pool, gymnasium, parking lots, bathrooms and other areas. To that end, the District hired a new architect who is working with us to come up with a plan for the near future.

During the past year, many members of the community have spoken to me directly or through other community constituents, about their concerns regarding the Fallsburg CSD pool. Additionally, the Fallsburg Town Board has pledged its support to working with the District on its new building project with a focus on repairing the swimming pool. We do realize the importance that having a functional pool has to the community. We also realize that the Fallsburg CSD pool has been the birthplace of many lifeguards throughout the years who have provided lifeguard services to the pools in and around our community. I have also had community members reach out to me interested in finding ways to offset the costs of a future building project to minimize the impact on our taxpayers. All of these efforts, concerns and supports are helping to put together what will ultimately be a building project proposal that will go in front of the voters during this new school year. Stay tuned for more news on the upcoming building project in the weeks to come.

New FCSD Vision Statement

This statement was months in the making during the previous school year. Various members of the school community worked with me and submitted drafts that would ultimately be considered by the district visioning committee. In particular I would like to thank all of the school groups that spent time working on previous drafts of the vision statement, letting their creative juices flow in our group work activities.

The following 12 committees met with me in the months of March, April, May and June to create their vision statement submissions:

- Superintendent's Round Table
- BOE/Student Round Table
- Administrative Council
- JSHS Department Chairs
- District-wide DCIP Committee
- District-wide Professional Development Committee
- English Language Learners Leadership Team
- Wellness Committee
- Board of Education (at a retreat)
- Technology Committee
- BCES Building Leadership Team
- District-Wide Visioning Committee (met 2x)

Following the first meeting of the district visioning committee in April, we had a two-week comment period for members of our school community to review and comment on the vision statement draft. The visioning committee then met a second time, following the comment period, to finalize the vision statement while considering the feedback garnered from the comment period. This vision statement will guide the creation of future district goals and we will proudly display it around the buildings in our district as we begin this new school year.

Please enjoy the remaining days of summer as we prepare to meet and greet the 2016-17 school year!

Educationally yours,
Ivan J. Katz, Ed.D.

We look forward to meeting all of our parents/guardians at our Open House on Thursday, September 22nd! We would welcome any of our community agencies to join us at our event. If you would like to set up a table to share information about your organization, please feel free to contact me at 434-4110, ext.3206.

FROM THE HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

FALLSBURG JR./SR. HIGH SCHOOL

Welcome Back!

Can you believe that the summer is gone and the start of the 2016-2017 school year is upon us? I hope that everyone had a relaxing, rejuvenating summer, and is ready to get back to work. The administration has been working and planning throughout the summer to continue the positive improvement the school made last year academically. Our goal is to provide each student with the best education possible in a safe, nurturing environment.

I want to make a plea to all of our parents/guardians out there to consider, as the new year gets underway, volunteering to become a part of the work we do here at school! I can't stress enough the importance of having parents and community members involved in what we do here! This is YOUR school and you have every right to be a part of the process regarding providing the best education possible for your child(ren). Volunteering is not a huge commitment; in fact, the more volunteers we get the less time everyone has to commit. You may ask "what can I volunteer for?" We need members for our Shared Decision Making Team, which reviews building procedures such as the dress code or the Code of Conduct. You might want to serve on our Parent Engagement Team, which works to get more people like you involved in our school. You may even volunteer to become part of our DTSDE team, which helps directly in improving our instruction in school. Or, if none of these appeal to you, we have other opportunities as the year progresses, all needing parental input. Each of these would not require more than 15 hours over the entire school year but would be so important in assisting us in making our school better!! Please, please, please consider becoming involved and volunteering for one, or more of our committees. To volunteer, call me at 434-6800, extension 2203 or e-mail me directly at mwilliams@fallsburgcsd.net.

Also, take some time once school begins to review the Code of Conduct with your child, review any changes, and discuss the importance of academic achievement over all else.

We have several new faces in the junior senior high school this school year, and I am excited about the level of enthusiasm and professional knowledge that these new teachers bring with them.

Communication is key! Please keep in touch with your child's teachers, guidance counselors and administrators. If we can do anything to help you along the way, please do not hesitate to contact us at 434-6800. I wish everyone my best for a successful school year! Remember, Effort Equals Excellence!!

Fallsburg High School Welcomes Hall of Famer Andrew Neiderman

On the evening of August 5, 2016, dozens of Andrew Neiderman's former students, their families and teaching colleagues welcomed him back to Fallsburg HS, his alma mater and the place where he taught from the early 1960's to the early 1980's. Mr. Neiderman set out at that time for California to fulfill his childhood dream of becoming a writer.

In a reception held in the library, Mr. Neiderman greeted some students that he has not seen for over 30 to 50 years. Several brought their grown children to meet the man who taught them how to write, encouraged them to act and sing, and do stage set up and design in the many theater productions he directed while at Fallsburg.

The $10 admission fee went entirely to the Samuel Beytin Fallsburg Central School Community Scholarship Fund. The first 100 attendees to the event received copies of V.C. Andrews' books written by Mr. Neiderman. He has recently published his 46th thriller and is recognized as one of the world's most successful ghost writers as V. C. Andrews. He spoke with each person and wrote a short personal message in each book given to guests.

During the evening, Mr. Neiderman accompanied FCSD Superintendent Dr. Ivan Katz and others to the Fallsburg High School Lobby to see his photo and plaque inscription in the Fallsburg Hall of Fame Display. Mr. Neiderman was very pleased with the honor and enjoyed having photos taken with Dr.

Katz, with his colleague Jack Leshner, who preceded him as the first elected member of the Hall, and with Diane, his wife and also an alumna of Fallsburg Central High School.

A Summer of Project Based Learning

As part of the Summer School Program at Fallsburg, 200 junior high and elementary school students are involved in project-based learning. The five day a week, six week program provided a special opportunity for the instructor and the students. Summer School Program Director Ms. Tammy Slick explained that project-based learning is student driven. Students gain a deeper understanding of material by investigating questions, proposing hypotheses and possible explanations. Students work collaboratively to discuss and challenge each other's ideas, which lead to further inquiry. Students engage in problem solving and critical thinking skills with each other and are fully engaged to find meaningful solutions to their questions.

Students were naturally excited to watch the growth of their plants. In six weeks, some plants did not grow fully, but each child learned to appreciate what it took to care for their plant. Some of the vegetables, like leaf lettuce, were enjoyed by the classes as part of lunch. Kids thought it was awesome to put the greens on their sandwiches and enjoy fresh picked flavor!

Besides learning so much about the earth and climate, students are sharing the nutritional information with their families. Some of them are involved in shopping and cooking and are excited to be using more vegetables at home and telling their siblings about how good they are for them. Project-based learning certainly has immediate and practical value for these young people.

Fallsburg HS General Science teacher Ms. Megan Ollive taught a seventh and eighth grade class on organic gardening. Each student chose a vegetable plant and tended it in an organic garden in a fenced-in space outside the building at BCES. The seedlings and young plants were donated by Cornell Cooperative Extension and Sullivan Renaissance.

Using the Internet and reference materials, each student learned about the history of the plant; about climate, soils and weather impacts; advantages of organic versus non-organic gardening methods; adaptation to environment; how different cultures cultivated and used the plant for food and other purposes; and what nutritional and medicinal values the plants offer.

Fallsburg Students Enjoying and Learning at Robotics Camp

The Fallsburg Robotics Team participated in a two-day and two-night a week camp at the High School from July 19th to August 25th. Faculty Advisor and Science teacher Don Thomas organized the activity after the Robotics Team performed so successfully during the past few school years. The Camp was paid for by the 21st Century Grant as part of the Extended Day Program.

During the school year many of the children who were enrolled in the camp competed regionally with other high schools in a New York State Association that began five years ago. This coming November 12th, the Fallsburg High School Robotics Team will co-host a regional competition with SUNY Sullivan. The Fallsburg team came out of the Science Olympiad that Mr. Thomas advised for six years.

The Camp is based on working with VEX Robots made by an international company that manufactures robot kits to be used by schools and industry. "The students are doing great," said Thomas. "They pick up the programming fast, watch VEX videos, and then put together the chasses and the key components of the robots. The older kids are solving bigger problems and also mentoring the younger students."

As part of FCSD Summer Extended Day Program the Camp included breakfast and lunch for the day program. Transportation was provided by Rolling V Bus Company as part of the summer program. In the evenings, transportation was provided by parents.

If you are a Fallsburg High School student, or the parent of one, and would like to learn more about the Robotics Club for the coming school year, please contact Mr. Donald Thomas at the school:

dthomas@fallsburgcsd.net.

All forms are available on the district website, www.fallsburgcsd.net, under Forms and Publications.

Federal and state law requires districts to provide many notifications to students and their parents and guardians each year. Summaries of several annual notifications are provided below and online on the district's website: www.fallsburgcsd.net.

ACCESS TO STUDENT RECORDS

This is to advise you of your rights with respect to student records pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). FERPA is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of student records. The law gives parents and students over 18 years of age (referred to in the law as "eligible students") the following rights:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the district receives a request for access. Parents or eligible students should submit to the Building Principal a written request that identifies the records they wish to inspect. The Principal will make arrangements for access and notify the parent or eligible student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the parent or eligible student believes are inaccurate or misleading. Parents or eligible students may ask the district to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading by writing the Principal, clearly identifying the part of the record they want changed, and specifying why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the district decides not to amend the record as requested by the parent or eligible student, the district will notify the parent or eligible student of the decision and advise them of their right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the parent or eligible student when notified of the right to a hearing.
3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the district as an administrator, supervisor, instructor, or support staff member (including health or medical staff and law enforcement unit personnel); a person serving on the school board; a person or company with whom the district has contracted to perform a special task (such as an attorney, auditor, medical consultant, or therapist); or a parent or student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Upon request, the district discloses education records without consent to officials of another school district in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the district to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
 U. S. Department of Education
 600 Independence Avenue SW
 Washington, DC 20202-4605
